

DEVELOPMENT MANAGER COMMERCIAL PROPERTY

BRENTWOOD, ESSEX

Are you a commercial development professional or commercial agent interested in transitioning to a client side development role?

Macdonald & Company are exclusively working with a leading property developer to recruit a Development Manager to join the Commercial Property team to help deliver both new and existing commercial and mixed-use projects. Countryside is a leading UK developer specialising in place making and urban regeneration with experience in delivering commercial development across the full range of market sectors which complement its highly successful residential and mixed-use schemes. Countryside's main emphasis is on developing commercial space allied to its new communities or regeneration opportunities. Founded in 1958, Countryside is listed on the London Stock Exchange and operates across London, the South East and the North West of England.

The Position

- To co-ordinate the planning, design and development of commercial and mixed-use projects.
- To be responsible for the marketing, sales and letting of commercial projects, and mixed-use schemes.
- To ensure the success of all development schemes undertaken through development management and control.
- To advise on the development potential of sites through market analysis and assessment.
- To handle professional matters in respect of the development and investment sales.

The Individual

- A dynamic MRICS qualified surveyor with experience in commercial development or commercial agency.
- Wide experience in property marketing and lease negotiations.
- Appraisal and valuation skills.
- General management and negotiation skills.

If you feel you have the required skills and can demonstrate the potential and ambition to be successful in this role, please apply to Jamie Wright, enclosing a full CV together with current remuneration details to jamiewright@macdonaldandcompany.com quoting reference 939977.
